Family History and General Information

Donna's birth certification identified that her father is Australian. He passed away two years ago. Her mother has inconsistent income which is not enough to bring up the 3 daughters, Donna (Natalie), Amanda (Natasha), and Linda. Donna and Amanda are twins. Their mother knew about the Father Ray Foundation, and she decided to put Donna, Amanda, and Linda, into the care of our Drop-In Center in order that they could live in a safe shelter and receive a good education.

For their own benefit, Donna, Amanda, and Linda were transferred from our Drop-In Center to our Father Ray Children's Home, effective the 13th of May 2013. At the Home, Donna displays herself as quiet young lady who rarely talks. She is now studying in Grade 8 at Muang Pattaya 1 School. Continued close monitoring and supervision are being maintained to ensure that her transition into her new life goes as smoothly as possible. (WS)

August 2013

Now in Grade 8 at Muang Pattaya 1 School, Donna enjoys going to school and concentrates on her classes. She rarely does her homework at home because she finishes it at school. She is a shy and creative person who likes drawing and playing badminton. She appears interested in Thai traditional dancing. Donna adjusted herself well to the new environment and new people. She is guided to be more self-disciplined and to realize the importance of cleanness. She is taught to keep things in their proper place. She is an obedient girl who tries to follow instructions as much as she can. In her free time, she enjoys listening to music, drawing, talking with her friends, and playing badminton. Donna is strong and healthy. In the last check-up, she weighed 40 kilograms and was 163 centimeters tall. Her mother regularly visits her at our Home. (WS)

February 2014

Donna is now in Grade 8 and continues to be a responsible student who pays attention to her studies. She regularly attends classes and diligently does her school assignments. She enjoys reviewing her past lessons in her free time. Donna enjoys good health and has a good appetite. She sometimes joins in sports with her friends. She was found to be 45 kilograms in weight and is 164 centimeters in height. Donna is a friendly and obedient person who nicely accepts criticism from her teachers and she tries to develop herself. She is a quiet but smiling person who is encouraged to take good care of herself and to realize the importance of cleanliness. She is assigned to clean up the dormitory and the canteen and she does so with a little push.

Christmas is always a happy time for our children. Along with the other children under the Father Ray Foundation, Donna participated in the annual Christmas party which, for the first time ever, had been organized by the children and students and it was a night to remember! She enjoyed sampling a great variety of food which was available before the main party started. She also enjoyed watching the performances by the children and students under the Father Ray Foundation. To top it all off, she received a nice Christmas gift.

The second Saturday of January is always celebrated here in Thailand as National Children's Day. Donna and the other children from the Children's Home visited the nearby Pattaya Sheep Farm. Not only did the children get to hold and feed the sheep and goats, but there was also a fun fair, an aviary, a working windmill and a restaurant, to keep everyone happily occupied. (WS)

In March, Donna completed her Grade 8 with a fairly poor passing grade. She obtained a 1.54 average grade out of possible 4. Now in Grade 9, she is encouraged to realize the importance of education. She sometimes skips classes and is guided to do her school assignments.

Donna loves singing and arts. She is a quiet young lady who has her own world. Therefore, she does not have many friends. In the last measurement, she was found to be 50 kilograms in weight and 165 centimeters in height. Being a young teenager, she is encouraged to be more concerned on cleanliness of her body and importance of good personal hygiene. Donna prefers playing with her sisters to cleaning her clothes on weekends. She actively participates in the planned activities both at the Home and at school. Her mother regularly visits her and her sisters. (WS)

February 2015

Donna is studying in Grade 9. In September 2014, she completed her last term in Grade 9, having obtained an average grade of 2.11. Her level of attentiveness in class was moderate, and she responsibly and consistently completed her class assignments. Her current ambition is to be a flight attendant of the Thai Airways. She plans to study Arts in her high school and to major in English at the university.

Donna is good at arts. She pays attention to details of her artwork; therefore the result is always satisfactory. Her weakness lies in Mathematics and she is encouraged to take some special tuition.
